

Gloria Patri

Glory be

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. Amen

Reflection on the Gloria Patri:

"The doxology, Glory be to the Father which, in conformity with the orientation common to Christian piety, concludes the prayer of the Rosary with the glorifying of God who is one and three, from whom, through whom and in whom all things have their being" (cf Rom 11 :36). (Marialis Cultus, No. 49)

At Christ's birth in Bethlehem the Angels sang: "Glory to God in the highest and peace to His people on earth." (Lk 2:14).

As He was about to ascend to the Father, Jesus said to His disciples: " ... you therefore, must go out and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit ... " (Mt 28: 19).
