

Prayers taught in Fátima

In Fatima the Angel taught the Little Shepherds to pray thus:

“My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You. I beg pardon for those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love You.”

"Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, I believe, I adore I hope and I love You. I beg pardon for those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love You."

And Our Lady taught the three Little Shepherds this prayer to be said between each decade of the Rosary:

"O my Jesus, forgive us, save us from the fire of hell. Lead all souls to heaven especially those most in need."

In this brief prayer, we ask the Lord Jesus for His mercy and to preserve us all from eternal death. We open our hearts to pray for the salvation of all our brothers and sisters throughout the world, remembering especially those who may be in greatest spiritual need.
